

The Robert Graves Poetry Prize 2020

The Robert Graves Poetry Prize is a collaboration between the University of Roehampton and Wimbledon BookFest and is co-sponsored by Marcus Beale Architects.

The prize is judged by the literary agent, Peter Straus and Professor Paul O'Prey, former assistant to Robert Graves.

£1,000 will be awarded to the winning entrant
£100 will be awarded to two runner ups

Entries must be unpublished, original poems written in English.
Poems must be no longer than 40 lines.
The entry fee is £5 per poem.

Your £5 entry helps Wimbledon BookFest continue through COVID-19

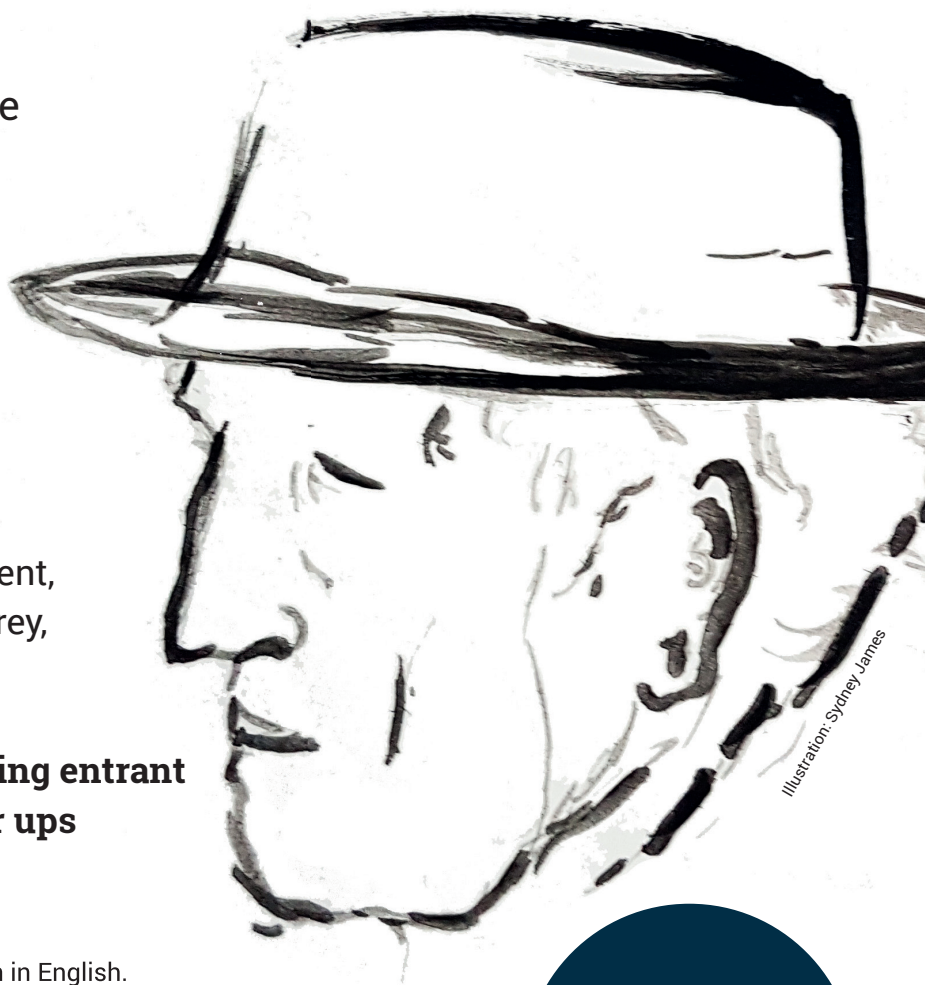

Illustration: Sydney James

POEMS MUST BE SUBMITTED BY FRIDAY 17TH
JULY 2020

To enter and for more information visit:
wimbledonbookfest.org/news/robertgravesprize

WIMBLEDON BOOKFEST

 University of Roehampton
London

 MARCUS
BEALE
ARCHITECTS